ABOUT

Dustin is a pastor, speaker, author, and church leadership coach who helps churches grow in healthy, sustainable ways by intentionally moving people from attendance to belonging.

For over two decades, Dustin has worked alongside pastors, staff teams, and volunteer leaders, navigating growth, disengaged guests, leadership strain, and unclear pathways.

His passion centers on one essential question:

HOW DO CHURCHES GROW WITHOUT LOSING PEOPLE ALONG THE WAY?

As the founder of The Connected Church, Dustin equips leaders with clear frameworks, practical tools, and scalable systems that protect connection—so people don't just attend church, but truly belong, engage, and grow.
